Subject	What are students learning in lessons?	What could students do to extend their learning and develop their character?
Autumn Term 1	Introduction to English: exploring how stories are structured for interest. The Girl of Ink and Stars: a novel exploring adventure, characterisation and tension.	Demonstrate independence: rent a book from the library by Hargrave to see what other adventure stories she has written.
Autumn Term 2	The Girl of Ink and Stars: a novel exploring adventure, characterisation and tension. Creative Writing: create an independent story based on a written prompt.	Be ambitious: write your own sequel to The Girl of Ink and Stars.
Spring Term 1	Introduction to Shakespeare: Shakespeare's legacy, the Globe Theatre, and Shakespearean sonnets. A Midsummer Night's Dream: Shakespearean play learning characterisation and what makes a comedy.	Be curious: find more Shakespeare plays online to watch.
Spring Term 2	A Midsummer Night's Dream: Shakespearean play characterisation and what makes a comedy.	Be creative: create a leaflet that advertises the play which shows the characters and themes.
Summer Term 1	War and Conflict: exploration of poems and extracts that showcase the lives of people impacted by conflict.	Be creative: write a poem on war or conflict.
Summer Term 2	Revision: how to read and comprehend an unseen text, how to write creatively. Oracy: write and present a speech on the topic of War and Conflict.	Be resilient: practice your speech at home to boost your confidence.
