Subject	What are students learning in lessons?	What could students do to extend their learning and develop their character?
Autumn Term 1	Much Ado About Nothing: Shakespearean play, learn about characterisation and what makes a comedy.	Be curious: research the life of Shakespeare and his legacy. Summarise your research in a report.
Autumn Term 2	Dracula: a Gothic fiction text, learn about characterisation and how to use Gothic conventions in writing.	Be courageous: write a short Gothic story using Gothic conventions.
Spring Term 1	Non-Fiction Writing: how to construct an article using persuasive devices.	Give service: write a newspaper article encouraging students, and showing them how, to make the school more environmentally friendly.
Spring Term 2	Relationships Poetry: explore and analyse different poetry forms and how different relationships are presented. Use methods to write your own poem on relationships.	Be courageous: perform your poem and record an audio or video performance.
Summer Term 1	Dystopian Fiction: characterisation and thematic exploration across Dystopian texts (Examination Day and A Sound of Thunder).	Be courageous: write your own dystopian story using dystopian conventions.
Summer Term 2	Revision: how to read and comprehend an unseen text, how to write creatively. Oracy: write and present your own speech on the topic of Dystopian Fiction.	Be resilient: practise your speech and record a video or audio performance.
How should I plan my time?	Assessment	Home Learning
	Students think hard and answer lots of questions every lesson. Students practice and get feedback on their work. Exam: Spring 1 and Summer 2	Character tasks and Sparx Reader to continue the joy of learning beyond the classroom.
